

This week's spelling rule is 'ssion'.

To practise this spelling rule, the children have 3 activities they can complete.

Activity 1

Choose the correct spelling for the missing word.

She had a strange _____ in her face.
expreion expresion exprecian expression

We saw a fantastic _____ at the theatre last night.
magition magision magician magission

What _____ did you get of him?
impreion impresion imprecian impression

She has a wonderful _____.
imagination imaginasion imaginacian imaginassion

Can I have an _____ on my homework please?
extention extension extencian extension

There was some _____ when Amy and Laura fell out.
tention tension tencian tenssion

There was a _____ when two children ran into each other?
collition collision collician collision

This ring was my mother's most precious _____.
possetion possesesion possescian possession

His face always shows his _____.
emotion emosion emocian emission

He called his mum to ask for _____ to go to his friend's house.
permtion permision permician permission

The _____ suggested a new law in parliament politition politision politician politission

The _____ fixed the broken appliance as it had lost power.
electritcion electrision electrician electrission

Activity 2

Choose the correct ending (-cian, -ssion, -tion or -sion)

pollu _____

expre _____

magi _____

impre _____

exten _____

colli _____

Activity 3

Read these sentences and decide whether the words are spelt correctly or not.

The musision played the violin beautifully.

He gets terrible mosion sickness.

After much consideration, I decided to accept your request.

Christmas is a time for selebracion.

Confussion can lead to a misunderstanding.

He was offered a promotion at work.

She is in inspriasion to women everywhere.